MORPHY
AUCTIONS

JAMES D.
JULIA
Inc.
a division of Morphy Auctions

Morphy Auctions and James D. Julia, Inc. merged in December 2017 to be an international leader in multiple collecting categories. We share a common purpose of delighting collectors worldwide with aligned missions and unparalleled customer service standards. Joining forces creates a synergistic team of passionate staff members to better serve our customers and strengthen the antiques and collectibles industry. Both companies take pride in having the most talented and knowledgeable experts in the industry. One of the biggest advantages to this merger is blending both teams of leading experts to enhance processes, descriptions and valuations.

DAN MORPHY

OUR FIREARMS TEAM

Our team can be found at all of the top American and Canadian Gun shows plus dozens of regional and specialty collector shows. Top locations include Denver, Louisville, Cody, Ft. Worth, Tulsa, Springfield, Ohio, Reno and Calgary. We are happy to evaluate your collection and discuss our auction process during these events.

SCOT KAUFFMAN

Firearms General Manager

Scot joined Morphy Auctions in November 2015 to oversee the Firearms Division. Scot has enjoyed hunting and fishing since he was a young boy. He has been buying and trading guns since the age of 21. Scot decided to obtain his FFL and open a small gun shop selling new and used guns and completing minor gun repairs. Scot considers his business, Cedar Top Firearms, a hobby and runs it in conjunction with his position at Morphy Auctions. In January 2016, Scot completed his Firearms Appraisers Certification from the American Gunsmithing Institute and continues to complete ongoing gunsmithing certifications.

MYLES WELSH

Firearms Assistant General Manager

Myles began his career with Julia's in July of 2017 and transitioned to the Morphy Auctions team during the merger. Myles interest in Firearms & Militaria sparked after learning about his Grandfather's service in WWII. He became inspired and passionate about absorbing everything he could about military firearms, gear, tactics, etc. Myles main interest is with WWI and WWII firearms and militaria and he continues to research and learn more about those eras. Myles is also a collector of vintage military firearms, gear and photographs. Myles is looking forward to developing his career in the firearms industry!

DAVE BUSHING

Firearms Expert

Dave Bushing joined the Morphy Auctions team in July, 2014. Dave is a veteran gun collector, dealer and authenticator. Renowned on the gun show circuit, both for his knowledge of out-of-production firearms and his willingness to share information with collectors at all levels. Dave will represent Morphy Auctions at gun shows, obtaining firearms consignments, and authenticating and cataloging all guns prior to our specialty sales. He will also be present at all of our gun previews and auctions, making himself available to anyone who has a question about an auction item and evaluating firearms brought in by collectors or potential consignors. Dave is highly respected in gun-collecting circles nationwide, and his track record as a gun appraiser is impeccable. We're genuinely honored that he is part of our team.

TONY WILCOX

Firearms Expert

Tony has been prominent and active in the collectible firearms industry since the 1980's. He attended over 40 national firearms shows each year, is a Life Member of the NRA and owned a retail establishment in the Washington DC suburbs. Tony developed expertise in historic firearms, particularly European and American small military arms from 1840-1950, Winchesters and fine Colts. Recognized for his unique knowledge, Tony has frequently consulted for collectors, museums and business owners around the country.

Tony's primary areas of expertise are Colts, Winchesters and 20th Century military firearms. However, with over 30 years with 200 plus days a year on the road attending gun shows, Tony has been exposed to thousands of different firearms, and with this hands-on experience has a fabulous knowledge of firearms and their market values.

DAVID GEIGER

Arms & Armor Specialist

David, a fourth generation antique dealer and appraiser, has been professionally involved in the firearms industry since 2000. He has been collecting arms and armor since he was five years old and buying and selling as a dealer at shows since he was ten. Today David has special expertise in Kentucky rifles; early French, Indian, English, and American guns; and edged weapons. David will be responsible for identifying and valuing fine arms and armor, cataloging, developing and growing consignment networks, and representing Morphy's at firearms events nationwide.

JOHN KEENE

Firearms Expert, NFA Item Specialist

John leads our BATF compliance efforts as well as being responsible for identifying, evaluating, appraising and cataloging specialty military firearms for auction. He specializes in Class 3 machine guns from the first half of the 20th century. He also has expertise with machine guns from the 1950's onward, as well as last century military firearms. Complementing this encyclopedic knowledge is his understanding of the complex rules and regulations associated with different machine gun classes as defined by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (BATF). As such, he is a huge asset to Class 3 buyers and sellers, able to facilitate and complete transfer forms properly, with extensive experience and expertise in handling transfers from estate situations after the registered owners have deceased, as well as making updates and corrections to the all-important BATF Class 3 registry.

Mr. Keene is a retired Army combat veteran who has proudly served our country for over 28 years. Keene was a charter member and officer of the Hiram Maxim Historical Society.

RUSS WITHEM

Firearms Expert

Withem received his first gun at age 12. Today, he has more than 40 years of experience collecting, appraising, and buying and selling firearms and sporting collectibles, including WW1 German militaria. Withem has deep expertise with Luger pistols, Winchesters, and Colt revolvers. He has contributed to several published books, including History Writ in Steel German Police Markings 1900-1936 (Thai Watana Press Co., Ltd., 2009); Simson Lugers: Simson & Co, Suhl, the Weimar Years (Brad Simpson Publishing, 2007); and Police Lugers: German Police Lugers and Their Markings 1918-1958 (Golden Belt Printing Inc., 2012) and is currently working on a book about the Colt 1877 DA. Withem is a member of the Winchester Collectors Association and the Colt Collectors Association. Prior to Morphy's, Withem owned and ran a firearms store in Southern Oregon.

JEREMY HATCH

Firearms Consultant

A graduate of the University of Maine system, Jeremy brings a breadth of experience to the Morphy's team. Coming from the James D. Julia Inc. team, Jeremy has been an intricate part of the Firearms Division, working with both consignors and buyers to achieve their goals. Prior to joining Julia's and the Morphy Team, he was the Senior Sales and Marketing Executive for over 11 years with Shooting Sportsman Magazine and Fly Rod & Reel and has attended many trade and consumer firearms shows around the country, working closely with individual clients and companies. A lover of fine sporting guns and pointing dogs, Jeremy is "hands on" in the field as well. He grew up in a sporting family and to this day can often be found wandering through the mountains or following a pointing dog through the uplands of New England. He is a member of the NRA, Ruffed Grouse Society, American Woodcock Society, North American Versatile Hunting Dogs Association, North American Deutsch Kurzhaar Club, and the Maine Trappers Association. Jeremy is a fully licensed Master Maine Guide for twenty years, a great accomplishment in and of itself.

JOSH LOEWENSTEINER

Firearms Consultant

A lifelong firearms enthusiast, Josh began studying, collecting and shooting guns with his father and brother when he was just eight years old. He particularly enjoys American sporting guns including the classic American sporting guns from the Golden Age. Josh is a Life member of the Parker Gun Collectors Association, having served on the Board of Directors as Secretary, and events coordinator. He is a Life Member of the NRA, A life member of the L.C. Smith Collectors Association, a member of the Lefever Arms Collectors Association, the Colt Collectors Association, the A.H. Fox Gun Collectors Association, the Smith and Wesson Collectors Association, the German Gun Collectors Association, and the Winchester Arms Collectors Association. He has been a part of the Julia's and Morphy Team since 2013, and represents clients throughout the country counseling them on their treasured firearms and other assets. Josh has become a trusted expert in helping clients to achieve success in the monetization of firearms at auction.

BRIAN ESTEPP

Acquisitions & Promotions

Brian Estep joined Morphy Auctions team as its marble consultant in 2009. His primary duties are to gather consignments for the company, with his specialty being marbles. Brian has developed an extensive general knowledge of the firearms and militaria auction industry. Brian represents Morphy Auctions at shows around the country and provides catalog descriptions and valuations on marbles in all Morphy sales. Brian is well known to marble and firearm collectors and has a superb reputation for quality and honesty. Morphy Auctions is pleased to have Brian as part of the team. Watch for him at shows around the country.

CHERYL GOYDA

Acquisitions & Promotions

Cheryl joined Morphy Auctions in 2015 in the role of Acquisitions and Promotions. She has over 40 years' experience in sales, antiques and auctions. Her early experience was in retail sales in the fashion industry. Cheryl worked for many years in the Antiques business, both as a self-employed Antique dealer and most recently, for a major auction house.

At Morphy Auctions Cheryl's responsibilities include; mapping out and managing the Firearms' show schedule, attending all major Firearms shows, providing support for the Firearms sales team, processing firearms consignments, communicating with Consigners and assisting the Marketing department with the advertising and promotional materials.

Please stop and introduce yourself when you see Cheryl "on the road"!

BRIAN MANIFOR

Western Antiques & Weapons Expert

Brian has provided authentication, appraisal, and identification services to numerous well-respected auction houses, museums, estate liquidation companies, and private collectors for the past two decades. He has served as a contributor and subject matter expert on numerous historical books, publications, and museum displays. He amassed one of the finest collections of pre-1920 USMC artifacts in the country that was featured in numerous collector reference works on the subject. Teamed with his father, Richard, they have approximately 100 years of combined experience in dealing with artifacts related to the American westward expansion.

For Canadian buyers and consignors of firearms and related items, Morphy Auctions has partnered with Borderview International Firearm Logistics. Borderview provides seamless export/import services, taking care of all paperwork required on both sides of the border with their offices in the U.S. and Canada, and other countries. All Canadian bidders on firearms auctions must have a valid Possession and Acquisition License (PAL) for the class of firearm purchased (i.e. Restricted or Non-Restricted).

CONSIGNING

with Morphy's

CONSIGNMENT

Once the valuation process is over and you would like to consign your item(s) to Morphy Auctions, a Morphy Auctions Representative will contact you. At this point, your Morphy Representative will coordinate all of the details of your consignments and logistics (consignment rate, special clauses, auction date, etc.) The Morphy Representative will finalize the agreement with you and arrange for shipment or pick-up of your items.

INVENTORY, INSURANCE & STORAGE

From the time your items are in our possession, they will be fully insured for the amount of the median pre-sale estimate as established by Morphy Auctions, until they transfer to the buyer who purchased the item at auction. After we receive your consigned items, our consignment team will tag and inventory each item. Our state-of-the-art process ensures that each of your items is properly documented and stored prior to the items being displayed. Our system also allows us to make sure the correct expert inspects, describes and estimates your items. Prior to your items being displayed, Morphy Auctions will store them in our museum-grade storage facilities. Morphy Auctions has advanced security systems in place to keep your items safe and secure.

DESCRIPTIONS, ESTIMATES & PHOTOGRAPHY

We employ the foremost experts in the industry to provide unbiased descriptions and estimates for your auction consignments. For highly specialized, niche categories, we have a bank of experts that we bring in to ensure accurate and trustworthy descriptions. We consider all of our experts to have the greatest knowledge and best reputations within their given field.

Our full time on-site photographers will take multiple photographs of each of your items, accurately representing your pieces with the latest graphic technology in the auction business.

Well before the auction date, a member of our consignment team will provide a report of your consigned items that includes the expert's description and estimates. It is at this time, that you can review all of the descriptions and estimates and discuss any changes you would like with us.

*Through every step of the process from valuation to the auction,
we will be dedicated to you and your collection.*

DISPLAY

In addition to your items being available to view online, they will also be displayed in our gallery for several weeks prior to the auction date. Our display coordinator carefully displays each of your items so it is represented properly and is accessible for previewing. Morphy displays all of your auction pieces in museum-quality glass display cases or locked gallery preview rooms, protected by full-time camera surveillance and only handled by Morphy Representatives.

SELLING AT AUCTION

On the designated auction date, we will hold a live auction of all items in that sale. For buyers who cannot attend our live auction, we offer multiple alternative ways to bid including telephone bidding, absentee bids, and online/internet bidding.

CONSIGNOR PAYOUT

Morphy Auctions prides itself in prompt payout to our consignors. Payments are made within 45 days of each auction.

MARKETING

and Promotions

Every auction is unique, which is why we customize a marketing and promotion campaign for each auction. Our marketing campaign is crafted to elicit maximum buyer participation and worldwide exposure for your consignments. Our customer database consists of nearly 100,000 potential buyers, each identified by their areas of interest. We design a hardbound catalog for every auction that is distributed to all of our top buyers in that collecting category. In addition to the hardbound catalog, a lavish full-color brochure is mailed out to our database of collectors based on category of interest.

Our extensive and creative advertising efforts target all of the popular antiques trade publications and other nationally renowned consumer magazines. In addition to print advertising, we also secure many digital and online advertising opportunities.

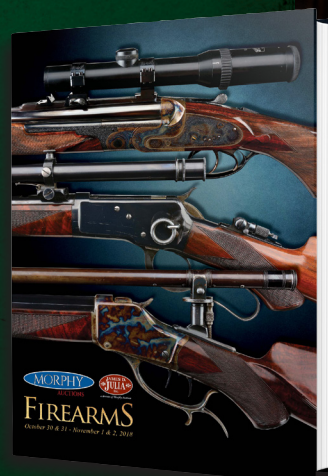

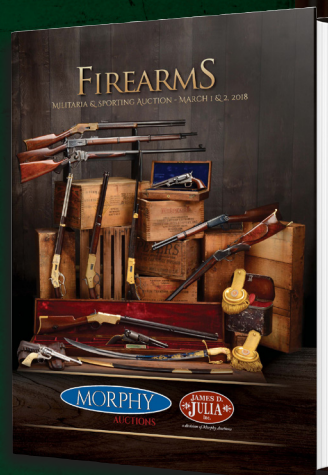

A public relations campaign is also designed for each auction to ensure widespread publicity for the auction. In conjunction with our Public Relations firm, we develop and distribute a press release to all major media outlets, as well as carry out media outreach to our well established contacts.

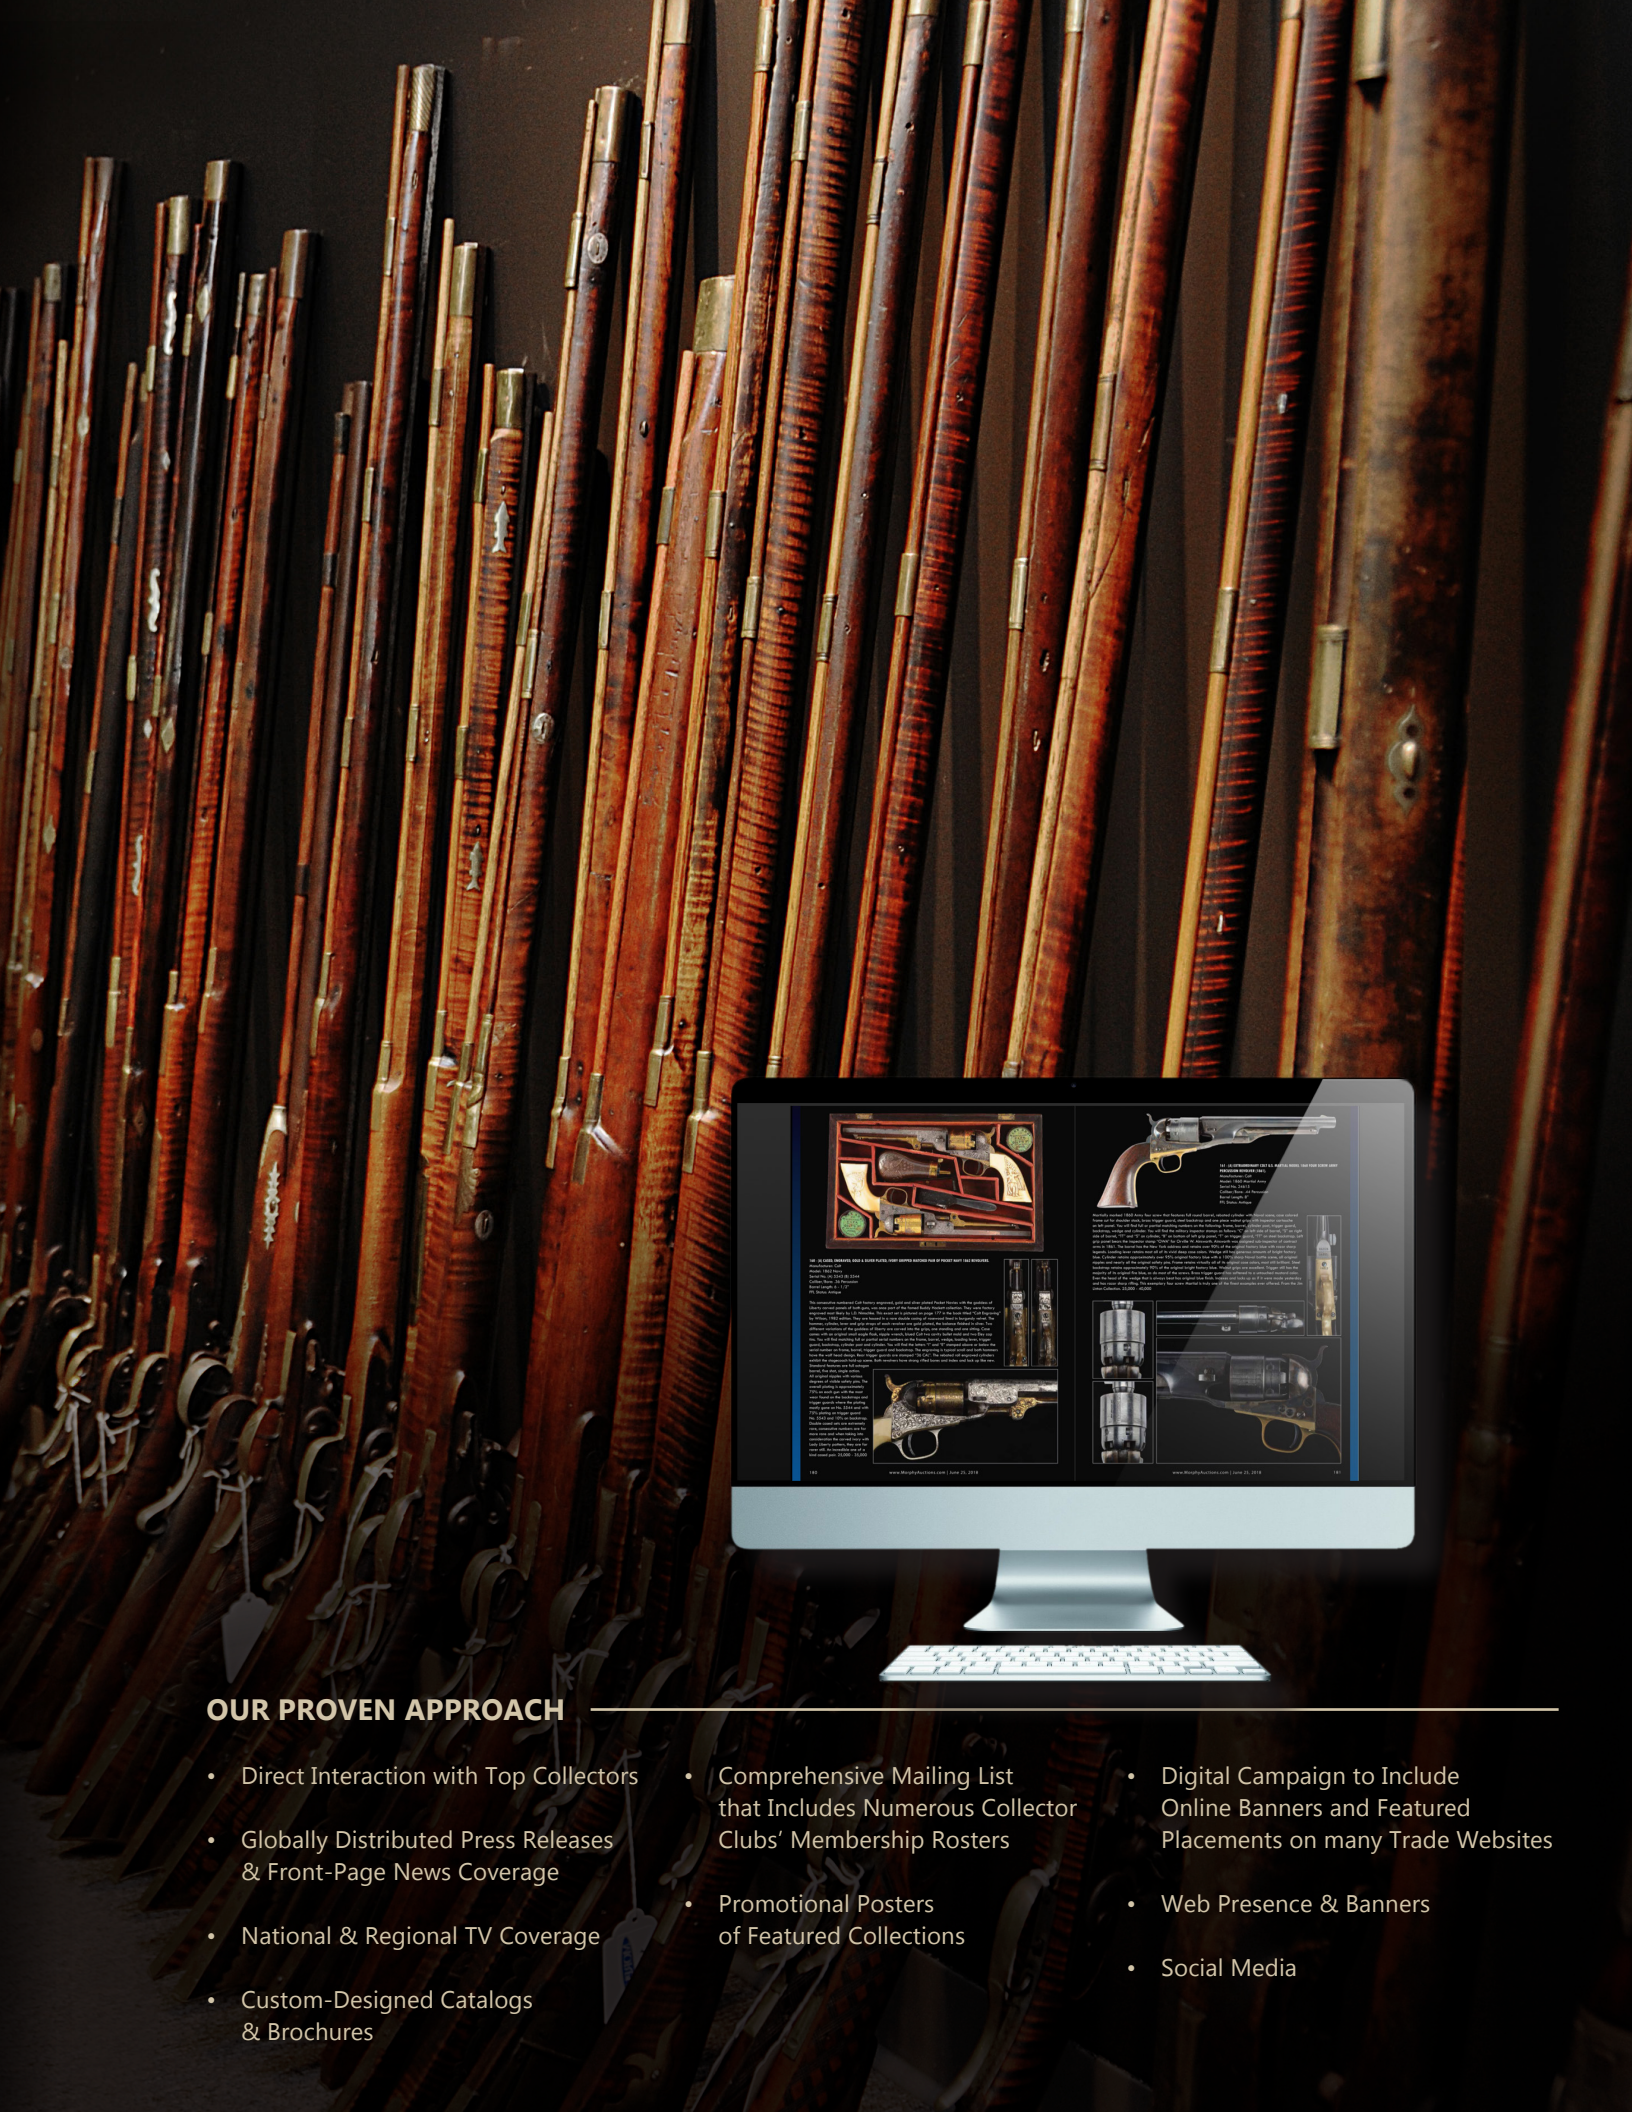

Our user-friendly website is another platform we use to promote your collection. With custom designed digital banners and dedicated auction pages, our website allows for advance promotion for each auction. On our website you will find a lineup of our current auctions, past auctions and prices realized, the latest Morphy Auctions news, and online catalog. Our sophisticated online catalog is available approximately 4 weeks prior to the auction date to allow for pre-bidding and contains a library of photographs for each auction item. Additionally, we have added an exceptional photo enhance feature that allows buyers to view, zoom and inspect all items in an auction.

Morphy Auctions is also active on Facebook and Instagram promoting our upcoming auctions, show attendance, world record prices realized and more!

OUR MARKETING EFFORTS INCLUDE:

- Extended Gallery Preview
- Targeted Email Campaigns for each Auction
- Promotion at Over 160 Tradeshows and Conventions per year - the most in the industry!
- In-house Full-time Photographers and Graphic Designers

OUR PROVEN APPROACH

- Direct Interaction with Top Collectors
- Globally Distributed Press Releases & Front-Page News Coverage
- National & Regional TV Coverage
- Custom-Designed Catalogs & Brochures
- Comprehensive Mailing List that Includes Numerous Collector Clubs' Membership Rosters
- Promotional Posters of Featured Collections
- Digital Campaign to Include Online Banners and Featured Placements on many Trade Websites
- Web Presence & Banners
- Social Media
